

15-10-06 Signs Allowed Without a Permit

The following sign types are allowed without a permit in Sandy City. The applicable standards for the use of such signs are as follows.

B. Changing Copy. The changing of copy on a marquee, reader board, electronic message center, or other replaceable copy area when such is part of a permitted sign. Sign face changes are not included in this category and as such require a permit except for those individual tenant faces within a multi-tenant or shared monument or freestanding sign.
