

E. Temporary Signs Requiring a Permit - Non-Residential Zones.

The following promotional periods require a Sandy City issued temporary sign permit, and may not be prolonged by those above periods allowed without a permit.

1. Grand Opening Period. Temporary signs announcing the initial opening of a business, or the relocation, or change of ownership of an existing business may be allowed within the first year of operations for a period not to exceed 45 calendar days. A combination of banners, wind signs, inflatables, beacon lights, portable and mobile signs may be used. The signs must be removed at the end of the 45-day period.
