

6.6.3 Individual Well or Spring Systems

Approval from the State Engineer, authorizing the use of water from the proposed source for domestic purposes; also written evidence to the effect that the water from the well or spring conforms to minimum quality standards for culinary water, as determined by the Building or Plumbing Official.