

Section 610 Additional Height Allowed.

Public and semi-public utility buildings, when authorized in a zone, may be erected to a height not exceeding seventy-five (75) feet if the building is set back from each otherwise established building line at least one (1) foot for each additional foot of building height above the normal height limit required for the zone in which the building is erected.