

Section 901 Continuing Existing Uses.

Any use of land, building, or structure lawfully existing at the time this Ordinance or amendments thereto become effective, may be continued, even though such use does not conform with the regulations of this Ordinance or amendments thereto for the zoning district in which it is located.