

4. Alteration Where Parking Insufficient.

a. A building or structure lacking sufficient automobile parking space in connection therewith as required by this Code may be altered or enlarged, provided additional off-street automobile parking space is supplied to meet the basic requirements of this Code for such alteration or enlargement.