

19.82.130 Lighted signs.

A. A lighted sign shall not be installed which permits the light to penetrate beyond the property in such a manner as to annoy or interfere with the use of adjacent properties.

B. Such lights alleged to violate subsection A of this section by the adjacent property owners or development services division director shall be subject to a public hearing before the planning commission as to the validity of the alleged violation. If such light is determined to be in violation, the owner of the light shall take appropriate, corrective action as directed. (Ord. 1034 § 1 (part), 1988)
